Caring for your Poinsettia:

- Find the ideal spot: give Poinsettias a sunny, south facing windowsill. Make sure to not put them too close to the window pane, because this can cause damage. Keep them at about 68 degrees F during the day, and cooler at night.
- Watering: Poinsettias should be watered regularly and kept moist. Be sure not to drown them by making sure adequate drainage is available. Avoid letting them sit in water-filled saucers.

Tip: It's common for a few leaves to turn and drop off when you first bring them home, don't be alarmed- the plant is just reacting to its new living conditions.
